

FREDERICK DOUGLASS INSTITUTE'S LUNCH (EN)COUNTERS SERIES

WHY ARE BLACK WOMEN RIGHTFULLY SUSPICIOUS OF THE HEALTHCARE INDUSTRY?

THIS PROGRAM IS FOR ANYONE WHO ADVOCATES FOR HEALTH EQUITY, CHILDREN, AND MENTAL HEALTH

LEARN FROM THE PANEL OF EXPERTS

Kimberly Elizabeth Johnson,
PhD, RDN
West Chester University
Associate Professor
Department of Nutrition

Portia Nichelle
Covenant Culture
Black Maternal Health
Coatesville, PA

Sharon Hardin, Nurse
Black Mental Health
Coatesville, PA

Kianna Ackerman,
West Chester University
Black Maternal Health
Social Work Graduate Student,
Center of Family Services
RUCCAS Graduate Assistant

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 2024 | 3:15–4:15 PM
MITCHELL 102 OR VIA ZOOM (REGISTER FOR ZOOM LINK)

SCAN ME

OR,
Click
Here

REGISTER
NOW

For more information, please contact:
Dr. Eleanor Shevlin, eshevlin@wcupa.edu
Dr. tonya thames taylor, Lthames-taylor@wcupa.edu

Or, the Frederick Douglass Institute
Co-sponsored by African American Studies